You can make an entanglement with an combination of points, lines, curves, etc. Zentangle art can be very relaxing because there is no pressure to focus on the final result. You also like it: process art for children we have combined the art of Zentangle with a fun and technical activity of Tessellation. A tesellation is formed of identical forms that fit without empty and can be repeated forever in all directions. The forms that make up the Tessellion patterns are the balanced triple, square and hexones. Also: Escher's Tessellations draws zentés patterns in our forms of printable triangle underneath and then cut to form a tesellation. Relaxing and attentive art for children of all ages! Why not attracted children? The children are naturally curious. They observe, explore and imitate, trying to find out how things work and how to control themselves and their environments. This freedom of exploration helps children form connections in their brain, helps them learn "And it is also fun! Art is a natural activity to support this essential interaction with the world. Children need the freedom to explore and experience creatively. Art allows children to practice a wide range of skills that are ostile not only for life but also for learning. These include the stable, scientific, interpersonal and practical interactions that can be discovered through the senses, intellect and emotions. Doing and appreciating art implies emotional and mental faculties! Art, whether doing it, learning about it or just looking at it, offers a wide range of important experiences. In other words, it's good for them! Put here to get your free Zentangle art activity! Artă ass supplements INSTRUCTIONS 1: Print the zentangle template. I decided to make an extremely colorful tangle: more Zentangle ideas: print the same design for everyone to work and see how different they look when you are finished. Look to use only black for Tangle, or maybe 2-3 colors. Tangle with a friend: you start a página, your friend begins another, then you change pages after about 30 minutes. Print the starting pages in stock card heavy white. Fill in white spaces with watercolor or marker color, and entangle on them after drying. OMG, combine tangle and brightness! Fill some forms with glue, sprinkle shine on them, and power! After finishing tangling, sealing your masterpiece with a brilliant mode. Children's artisan: Cut tangled and moderate cycles both sides with a few coats to use as coastal! (Better teacher gift than an old apple with bruises.)
